The Annual General Meeting shall be convened by the Secretary of the Society who shall also dispatch by post a notice thereof to each member of the Society, not less than 31 days before the date of the meeting. In the event of any member of the Society desiring to move any special resolution at the Annual General Meeting, he shall give not less than 21 days' notice in writing to the Secretary of the Society, and at the same time shall forward a copy of the resolution which he desires to move. The secretary shall forward a copy of the Agenda of the Annual General Meeting to each member of the Society not less than 14 days before the date of the meeting. The Agenda shall clearly state the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- b) Quorum. No business shall be conducted at any Annual General Meeting unless at least six members be personally present. If within half an hour from the time fixed for the meeting, six members be not personally present, a new date shall be set and the meeting adjourned.
- c) No business may be dealt with or discussed at any Annual General Meeting unless it is included in the Agenda, except that as a matter of urgency, the Chairman may accept discussion on matters not on the Agenda, with the permission of the meeting.

- d) At all Annual General Meetings, the Chairman of the Society, if present, shall be in the chair. In the event of his absence, the meeting shall elect to the chair a member of the Committee.
- e) All questions submitted to an Annual General Meeting shall be decided by a show of hands, unless a ballot be demanded by three or more members present. The Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote. The vote of the majority shall be binding on the minority.
- f) Proxies will be allowed, but must be in the prescribed form and be received by the Secretary before the Meeting.

15. SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

- a) The Committee may, whenever it thinks fit, and shall, upon requisition made in writing signed by not less than six members, convene a Special General Meeting. Any such request must clearly specify the objects of the meeting.
- b) Method of Convening. All Special General Meetings shall be convened by individual notices sent to members not less than 21 days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the object of and the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- c) Procedure. No business, other than that for which the meeting is convened may be dealt with or discussed at any Special General Meeting.
- d) The procedure at Special General Meetings apart from 15(b) and 15(c) shall in every way conform to the procedure laid down for the Annual General Meeting.

16. APPOINTMENT OF OFFICIALS

The Committee shall be empowered to appoint a secretary, auditors, and such other officials as they consider necessary and shall pay remuneration as they may from time to time determine.

17. INDEMNIFICATION OF THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall be indemnified from the funds of the Society against the result and cost of any legal proceedings which may be instituted against it in consequence of the performance of its duties.

18. DISCRETION OF THE COMMITTEE

If any circumstance occurs which is not, or which is alleged not to be provided for by the Constitution and Rules of the Society, it shall be determined by the Committee in such manner as it shall then deem fit.

19. ALTERATIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION AND RULES

Alterations of the Constitution of the Society may be effected by resolution in General Meeting provided that every such alteration is passed by three-quarter majority of those present. Full particulars of the proposed alterations must be detailed in the Agenda of the meeting at which they are to be discussed. Any new Rules introduced by the Committee shall be confirmed at the next following General Meeting.

20. DISSOLUTION OF THE SOCIETY

The Society may be wound up by resolution in General Meeting always provided that such resolution be passed by three-quarter majority of those present, and that at least six months' notice in writing of the proposal to dissolve the Society shall have been given to members of the Society.
